PRINTING FOR THE FAIR.—The merchants, and others who desire to consult their own interests, would do so by having their bills and circulars printed and distributed liberally during the coming week. No doubt, a large number of visitors from the country will be in the city, with the intention of making purchases before returning home, and it will be an object to secure their custom. An excellent Job Office is attached to this establishment, and we are prepared to turn out all sorts of Job Printing at short notice. Send in your orders.

The Contrast—Louisville and Cincinnati.

Before the August election in our State a proposition was made by a Committee of Democrats to meet a similar Committee of the self-styled American party, with a view to a mutual arrangement for the preservation of law and order on election day. Our propositions were hotly debated at the Know-Nothings, and the plauso editor of the Journal rolled up his eyes in holy horror at the very thought. It was pronounced an insult to the "indefatigable Mayor" and "efficient Marshal" of our city. Besides, the editor wanted to know who authorized such a Committee to make such proposals to the American party.

All propositions for an increase of polls were rejected, purposely rejected, and doublets, too, because the order had been issued from a midnight caucus that additional precincts must not be established, as there it would afford a better opportunity of receiving the vote. All parties admitted that at the rate of a vote for every minute throughout the day, the First Ward would fall short of receiving its full vote by several hundred. Then a proposition was made for two sets of officers; this was also rejected. Meantime, in the appointment of election officers, Judge Garland was very careful that nine-tenths of all who served in that capacity should belong to the oath-bound fraternity of which he was an exalted member—placed in office by his directions, and of course to serve them in their extremity. The example he gave in the appointment of election officers is unprecedented in the history of partisan tactics. Overriding the good example of his predecessors, he "broke ground" to suit the wishes of the plunder-hunters, and thus aided to bring about the state of things which occurred on election day. The Mayor, in the appointment of extra policemen, took precious good care to place, with very few exceptions, Sam's disciples in this office. At some of the polls they were the active disturbers of the peace.

Will it be in Cincinnati, where a Democratic Mayor is in office? Did he refuse all propositions from the opposition? Did he refuse to grant a liberal share of the officers to the opposite party, that all might be done in order, and that peace may be kept at the polls? Let us see. Does this look like taking an unselfish advantage? The whole of the Hamilton county, for and on behalf of their respective parties, earnestly desiring to prevent the return of the oligarchs of the city, and more recently in the city of Louisville, the encumbrance of which do not appear to have been removed, and upon the far character of the cities in which they occur, have appointed, and are still continuing to do so, and effect an amicable arrangement between the two parties, whereby peace, harmony, and kind feeling may prevail.

And whereas, the sub-committee have met, and mutually agreed to let each other have, through the ballot box, to all legally qualified voters, native and adopted, a fair opportunity to choose their representatives in the election, without fear or molestation, have, after mature deliberation, entered into the following agreement, for the benefit of the people of the city:

In the name of the Democratic party, the third Judge to be selected from the American party; and when both Judges are from the Democratic party, the third judge to be selected from the Democratic party.

The Clerks in the wards and election precincts to be appointed by the sub-committee.

In the townships in which there are three Judges or Trustees of either party, it is resolved, that one of the three shall be elected on election day, and that such vacancy be supplied by the choice of the party of opposite candidates.

In the townships in which the Town Clerk is of the Democratic party, the Assistant Clerk to be selected from the American party; and vice versa. Where he is of the American party.

Amende honorable originated in France in the ninth century. It was first an infamous punishment inflicted on traitors and sacrilegious persons.

The offender was delivered into the hands of the hangman, his shirt was stripped off, a rope put about his neck, and a taper in his hand; he was then led into Court, and was obliged to pray for God, the King, and the country. Death or banishment often followed. Amende honorable, now-a-days, is a mere recantation or an acknowledgment to the injured party.

Remember that subscribers are supplied with the Morning Daily Democrat in all parts of the city, Shippensburg, Portland, New Albany, and Jeffersonville, by prompt and faithful carriers, at ten cents per week.

The Evening Democrat, issued promptly after the receipt of the noon dispatches, is supplied at the rate of 1½ cents per week. Orders left at the office will meet with prompt attention.

New Albany and Salem Railroad.

It will be seen by reference to an advertisement in our columns to-day, that on and after this date the express train will leave the New Albany depot at 1½ o'clock, A.M.

The accommodation train will leave at six o'clock, A.M.

Passengers over this road will reach Chicago the same day.

ORMEY BLAIR & CO.—HARDWARE.—One of the largest and best hardware establishments in this or any other city, is that of Ormey Blair & Co., on Main street, north side, between Third and Fourth. Mr. R. J. Ormey has been in the business for many years, and is well known as one of our most enterprising, and liberal merchants. Mr. H. S. Blair was lately treasurer of the city, and is well known for his business capacity, as well as his affability. The junior partner, Mr. McCreary, has long been in the house with Mr. Ormey.

If you want anything whatever, in the hardware line, you will find it at their store. Almost everything imaginable, from a small pocket-knife, up, can be bought of them, made at the best establishments in the world. The carpenter, the plasterer, the mason, the blacksmith, the tailor and seamstress, and the barber, all can find what they need in the way of implements of trade. Give them a trial, and see if we do not speak truly.

A FIEND.—A letter in the Columbus Times, dated Yorkville, S. C., says that the negro Clarissa was tried on Tuesday, and found guilty of the charge of murder, by poison. Col. Wilson's child. She confessed that she has also poisoned two children of Mr. McCally, and one for Mr. Marshall, of Newberry, and probably one for Mr. Berry. She also confessed that she had prepared poison as many as three times for Mrs. Wilson, her late mistress. She also stated that there is now a poisoner in Columbia, and that there is an old lady there, who she has named, that is now kept in bed by poison, administered by her servant. She has proved herself to be a devil on earth. Every day she is making more confessions.

No. 525 SOUTHWEST CORNER OF MAIN AND THIRD STREETS.—We would call the attention of our readers to this well-known clothing and furnishing store. Mr. Mansfield has at present a large and superb stock of goods suitable for the approaching season. We would say to those who are in search of fine ready-made clothing and furnishing goods, they will find at Mr. Mansfield's establishment a full assortment to select from, and at very low prices. Give him a call.

Why Females Suffer in Health.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion,

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU,
PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.

One Hundred Editions ($0.00) Eleme., pp. 250. Standard work of established reputation, found classed in the catalogues of the great Trade Sales of New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States.

Every woman who has suffered from any disease which she describes, the nature, character, and cause of her complaint, and be spared much anxiety and suffering, as well as the unpleasantness of making known to, or making inquiry of, a physician in respect to the numerous ailments to which she is subject. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice in respect to her situation, which she will here find. This book tells her what she needs to know, and gives her the best words, and such as she can understand.

Those suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, or from proptosis uteri (falling of the womb), or from fibros, will find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief.

Much distress of mind, as well as thousands pecuniarily, might be saved to every husband, if the simplest and most common diseases of his wife were better understood. That they are better understood is traceable to natural and almost commendable sensitiveness, but will rather suffer than consult or converse with even a medical man in respect to complaints peculiar to female only.

In a copy of "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion," every female has a physician, who knows and describes her every symptom, feeling, and ailment and which she can consult at all times without violence to her sensibilities.

Extract from a letter of a gentleman in Dayton, Ohio:

"Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, My Dear Sir: My wife has been ill for some time past, and I have been greatly in consequence of great anguish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive day has been a scene of increasing torture, until, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. I suppose that this was the cause of her suffering, and I have no doubt met the worst. I heard your name highly spoken of, as containing some remedies reaching my case. On this account I have written to you, and you have afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages informed me, little consolation. I opined a prospect to me which I little conceived possible. But the result of your treatment has been so favorable, and in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave and my children lost forever."

Extract from a letter of a gentleman in Louisville, Ky.:

"Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, My Dear Sir: I have received your kind letter, and I am very anxious to have you come to my aid. I have a wife, who is in a state of great pain, and I have several pairs of Specimens at different hours, but have not obtained any that did not suggest pain and fatigue to the eyes, but am happy to say improve so much since I have used them, that cannot sit down and read small print without them. Visiting you every week your great enterprise deserves, I remain, etc., B. HILLMAN."

More Light on the Subject.

A BLUE AND WHITE DOUBLE QUILL pen, with light and intricate patterns, enables him to take his pen-knife in a few seconds and for the greatly reduced price of 50 cents and upwards. It is also one of the best lights known to produce correct likenesses, either of children or adults. The red hair and blue eyes have hitherto been difficult to take; but it is no longer any trouble to give them the real artistic disposition of light and shade. The new Skin Lighter operates as well in cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the like tone of life. The public will therefore be drawn to their interest by calling on Roesberg before going to any fair, where you can buy cheaper, receive a better service, and a much truer likeness than at any other place in the city.

Just received, a splendid lot of hand-made cases, such as Velvet, Paper Maché, Pearl, and other kinds too numerous to mention.

Persons having Daguerreotypes taken by other artists can have them retaken for 50 cents, and if not bettered no charge will be made. Call on the Roesbergian Gallery, No. 201 Main street, between Second and Third. GEORGE F. ROESBERG.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

Another Letter from Lexington.

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 6th, 1855.
MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Democracy of the State assembled in convention at this city yesterday in large numbers. The weather during the day was exceedingly inclement, preventing the attendance of thousands, who would otherwise have been present. Hon. S. A. Douglas led off in a speech of great power and eloquence, which, for vastness of research, compactness of argument, profundity of thought, and massive comprehension, have never been equalled. Senator Pugh, of Ohio, in the evening delivered a sound, patriotic, and eloquent speech. He is a powerful orator, and his remarks told with effect upon the crowd.

Lieut. Gov. Willard made one of his powerful addresses. He is a man who, whenever he speaks touches the popular heart and causes it to beat responsive to the promptings of his own.

Col. Preston, of Louisville, made a most felicitous speech, full of sound argument, and glowing with patriotism and eloquence. Col. Preston appears bold and undismayed. He declared his full determination to stand by the Democracy now and forever. It was remarked by Gov. Powell, after Col. Preston had concluded, that he would rather have delivered that speech than a member of Congress for forty years; no wonder the Know-nothings, finding it impossible to resist the eloquence of Col. Preston, had resorted to brassknuckles to defeat him.

Col. Talbot, member elect to Congress from the Fourth District, made a glorious speech, and like the gallant Col. enrolled himself in the Democratic party.

At night, the meeting assembled in the Upper Market-house, where the banner prepared by the Democracy of Louisville, for the people of Johnson county, was presented in a chaste and eloquent speech, by Wm. P. Jarvis.

After the presentation of the banner, Major Breckinridge was loudly called for, and delivered a masterly address. He was followed by that old wheel-horse of Democracy, Elijah Nuttal.

Ex-Gov. Powell wound up the proceedings of the day. His speech was replete with sound and patriotic sentiment, and his remarks, as did those of all the speakers, called forth enthusiastic shouts of approbation.

The resolutions adopted by the Convention are broad, liberal and national. They reaffirm the time-honored principles of the Democracy, including the Kansas-Nebraska bill—denouncing the recent Know-Nothing outrages in your city, approving the course of the National Administration and the administration of Gov. Powell, and recommending the different counties of the State to vote prompt and energetic measures to secure a full attendance of the Democracy at the State Convention, to be held in Frankfort on the 8th of January next.

Perhaps never, in the political history of Kentucky, have its citizens had the privilege of listening to higher efforts of oratory. The exponents of Democracy of Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, all coming together—all bending their energies to uphold civil and religious liberty, to cement the union of the States, to crush out Know-Nothingism and Abolitionism. It is a glorious cause, worthy of such champions as Douglas, Pugh, Willard, Preston, Powell, and Breckinridge.

When can Know-Nothingism—when dare Know-Nothingism—bring its champions from the free States, as the Democracy have done? The Democracy are united—bold, confident, and from present indications will sweep the country at the next Presidential elections.

The meeting adjourned in fine spirit, with the full determination to redeem Kentucky.
